Description

When turn of the century meets today's modern standard of living, let this slice of history welcome you home. Nestled on a fenced corner lot in east Davenport, minutes away from VanderVeer Botanical Park. This stately abode boasts a grand 'Hello' from the outside and greets you in with a double doored vestibule, featuring art deco ceiling tiles, and luscious woodwork throughout--from the crown molding down to the hardwood flooring. From there, the hallway creates a separation of space from the family room and the formal dining room, giving everyone room to roam. The family room has a wood burning fireplace w remodeled mantel, perfectly paired with the original built in, another set of french doors open up to the sunroom, allowing you to get a peek of the neighborhood and a good cascade of natural light. Kitchen has been updated with a complete renovation, yet keeping the character cohesive w the house. Upper level has 4 large...
